NEGOTIATED MODIFICATIONS TO CONTRACT DOCUMENT Nos. 3, 7 & 8 CONTRACT NO. 2199A

These Negotiated Modifications by and between West Publishing Corporation, d/b/a West, a Thomson Reuters business (the "Contractor") and the County of Henrico, Virginia (the "County") are hereby incorporated into Contract No. 2199A (the "Contract") for Case Management System as of the effective date of the Contract.

WHEREAS, the County and the Contractor desire to modify the final terms and conditions of (a) the Scope of Services, Section II of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK (Contract Document No. 8), (b) Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021 (Contract Document No. 7), and (c) the General Contract Terms and Conditions, Section V of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK (Contract Document No. 3) as described in the following paragraphs.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the Recital set forth above and good and valuable consideration as set forth in the Contract, the parties agree that Contract Document Nos. 3, 7, and 8 are modified as follows as of the date of the Contract:

1. Section II.D ("Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

D. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure. The parties agree that Section 6 of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions, Version 3.0, Last Modified August 3, 2021 ("Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions"), govern obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure, except that:

(i) Contractor's obligations with respect to County records protected by the attorney-client privilege or work-product privilege, County records containing personally identifiable information, or other County records of a confidential or sensitive nature shall continue for three (3) years after the termination of the Agreement or until the records are no longer deemed confidential under applicable law, whichever occurs last, and

(ii) Contractor acknowledges and agrees that the County is subject to the Virginia Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), and the County's obligations under Section 6 of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions are subject to its obligations under FOIA. Contractor shall, prior to or upon submitting proprietary or confidential information to the County, (a) identify the proprietary or confidential information,

Exhibit A

(b) state the reasons why protection is necessary, and (c) invoke the protections of Section 2.2-4342(F).

Contractor shall ensure that its personnel adhere to the duty of confidentiality and non-disclosure set forth in Section 6 of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions, and Contractor shall use the County's data, information, materials, and other content uploaded or submitted to HighQ only for the purpose of performing its obligations under the Contract in accordance with the HighQ Product Specific Terms, Version 1.3, May 2021 ("HighQ Product Specific Terms") and the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions.

Attachment H ("Non-Disclosure Agreement") to RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted. The parties agree that this section 1 resolves the first and second exceptions under Tab 7, on page 58, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

2. Section II.K ("Contract Expiration/Termination") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

K. Contract Expiration/Termination. The County intends to enter into a Contract (including all license agreements and software/hardware maintenance agreements) for a period of five years beginning with final acceptance of the Case Management System. Thereafter, the County may elect to renew the Contract on an annual basis for up to five one-year renewal periods. In the event of Contract expiration or termination (or in the event the Successful Offeror plans to cease supporting or hosting the Case Management System), the Successful Offeror shall:

1. Cooperate with the County and exercise its best efforts to implement an orderly and efficient transition to a successor.
2. Make all County data available to a successor in a usable format at an appropriate time to facilitate the transition to a successor.
3. Furnish all necessary phase-in/phase-out services after the Contract expires, except that the Successful Offeror will not be required to provide staffing for document migration during the transition phase.

Exhibit A

The parties agree that this section 2 resolves the third exception under Tab 7, on page 58, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

3. Section V.F ("Default") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

F. Default.

1. If the Successful Offeror defaults (including, but not limited to, failure to deliver services, failure to complete implementation, or if the services fail to perform as specified), the County may provide the Successful Offeror with written notice of default. If the Successful Offeror fails to cure the default within 30 days of such notice, the County may terminate the Contract immediately subject to paragraph 2 of this section.

2. If a default cannot reasonably be cured within the 30-day period provided in paragraph 1 of this section, the Successful Offeror shall, within 30 days of notice of such default, provide a plan to correct the default within a period not to exceed 180 days.

3. If the County terminates the Contract, the County will be entitled to a refund of any charges prepaid by the County for any services not provided satisfactorily by the Successful Offeror. The Successful Offeror will be paid by the County for all scheduled services completed satisfactorily by the Successful Offeror up to the termination date.

The parties agree that this section 3 resolves the fourth exception under Tab 7, on page 58, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

4. Section V.M ("Assignment") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

M. Assignment of Contract. Following notice to the County, the Successful Offeror may assign all or any of its rights and obligations to a third party as a result of a merger or acquisition or sale of all or substantially all of its assets to the third party so long as Successful Offeror's assignee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions set forth in the Contract and provided that the third party is a U.S.-based entity or maintains a registered agent and a certification of authority to do business in Virginia. Successful Offeror may assign all or any of its rights and obligations to an affiliate of Successful Offeror, provided that Successful Offeror remains liable for the affiliate's compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Contract.

Exhibit A

The parties agree that this section 4 resolves the fifth exception under Tab 7, on page 58, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

5. Section V.N ("Indemnification") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

- N. Indemnification. The Successful Offeror will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the County (including Henrico County Public Schools) and the County's officers, agents, and employees (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any claim, loss, damage, liability, and expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from (i) bodily injury or property damage caused by the negligent or wrongful act, error, or omission of the Successful Offeror, or (ii) the violation of any applicable law or regulation by the Successful Offeror, or any of the Successful Offeror's employees, officers, contractors, agents, or others for which the Successful Offeror is legally responsible or who were otherwise acting on the Successful Offeror's behalf. Section 8(a) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions shall not, in any manner, limit the Successful Offeror's obligation to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties under this section or elsewhere in the Contract.

Section V.LL of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK governs the Successful Offeror's indemnification obligations with respect to claims of infringement.

The parties agree that this section 5 resolves the sixth exception under Tab 7, on pages 58-59, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

6. Section V.S ("Record Retention and Audits") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

- S. Record Retention and Audits.

1. The Successful Offeror shall retain, during the performance of the Contract and for a period of five years from the completion of the Contract, all records pertaining to the Successful Offeror's proposal and any Contract awarded pursuant to this Request for Proposal. Such records shall include but not be limited to all paid vouchers including those for out-of-pocket expenses; other reimbursement supported by invoices, including the Successful Offeror's copies of periodic estimates for partial payment; ledgers, cancelled checks; deposit slips; bank statements; journals; Contract amendment and change orders; insurance documents; payroll documents; timesheets; memoranda; and correspondence. Such records shall be available to the County during the Successful Offeror's normal working hours no later than 30 days following a request by the County.

2. County personnel may perform in-progress and post-audits of the Successful Offeror's records as a result of a Contract awarded pursuant to this Request for Proposals. Such records shall be available to the County during the Successful Offeror's normal working hours no later than 30 days following a request by the County.

The parties agree that this section 6 resolves the seventh exception under Tab 7, on page 59, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

7. Section V.X ("Termination") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

X. Termination of Contract.

1. The County reserves the right to terminate the Contract immediately in the event that the Successful Offeror discontinues or abandons operations; is adjudged bankrupt or is reorganized under any bankruptcy law; or fails to keep in force any required insurance policies or bonds.

2. Failure of the Successful Offeror to comply with any section or part of the Contract will be considered grounds for immediate termination of the Contract by the County, subject to Section V.F ("Default").

3. If the County terminates the Contract, the County will be entitled to a refund of any charges prepaid by the County for any services not provided satisfactorily by the Successful Offeror. The Successful Offeror will be paid by the County for all scheduled services completed satisfactorily by the Successful Offeror up to the termination date.

The parties agree that this section 7 resolves the eighth exception under Tab 7, on page 59, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

8. Section V.KK ("Upgrades") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

KK. Maintenance and Support. The Successful Offeror shall maintain and support the products and services provided under the Contract in accordance with the HighQ Service Availability, Maintenance and Support agreement, Version 1.1, July 2021. Maintenance releases (including, but not limited to, changes, bug fixes, releases, updates, versions, and other enhancements to functionality) will be provided at no additional cost to the County.

The parties agree that this section 8 resolves the eleventh exception under Tab 7, on page 59, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

9. Section V.LL ("Indemnification from Claims of Infringement") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

LL. The Successful Offeror shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the County (including Henrico County Public Schools) and the County's officers, agents, and employees (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from all claims that the Case Management System or related services provided under the Contract violate or infringe upon any patent, copyright, trade secret, or any other intellectual property rights of a third party, provided that the County gives the Successful Offeror prompt written notice of such claims and permits the Successful Offeror the right to control the defense of such claims and provides the Successful Offeror with all reasonable cooperation. However, without the County's prior written approval, the Successful Offeror shall not enter any settlement that impairs the value or usefulness of the Case Management System or related services that are the subject of the infringement claim or that imposes any obligations on the County. The Successful Offeror shall hold the Indemnified Parties harmless from any and all damages and costs resulting from any final judgment, settlement, or other resolution of such claims of infringement and reimburse the Indemnified Parties for any direct damages suffered by them as a result of such claims of infringement, including attorneys' fees.

As to the Case Management System or related services provided under the Contract that are, or in the opinion of the Successful Offeror may become, subject to a claim of infringement, the Successful Offeror, at its option, shall obtain the right for the County to continue using the Case Management System or related services, or the Successful Offeror shall replace or modify the same so as to make them non-infringing. If none of the alternatives are available on commercially reasonable terms, the County agrees, upon the Successful Offeror's request, to terminate the Contract and cease using the Case Management System, and the Successful Offeror shall refund to the County any charges prepaid by the County for any unused services.

The Successful Offeror shall not be obligated to indemnify or defend the County from any infringement claim resulting from the County's unauthorized modification or alteration of the Case Management System.

Section 8(a) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions shall not, in any manner, limit the Successful Offeror's obligation to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties under this section or elsewhere in the Contract.

The parties agree that this section 9 resolves the twelfth exception under Tab 7, on page 59, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

10. Section V.PP ("Cooperative Procurement") of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK (Addendum No. 1 dated September 10, 2021) is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

PP. Cooperative Procurement. This procurement is being conducted by the County in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2-4304 of the Code of Virginia. Except for contracts for architectural and engineering services, if agreed to by the Contractor, other public bodies may utilize this Contract. The Contractor shall deal directly with any public body that is authorized to use the Contract. The County, its officials, and its employees are not responsible for placement of orders, invoicing, payments, contractual disputes, or any other transactions between the Contractor and any other public body, and in no event shall the County, its officials, or its employees be responsible for any costs, damages or injury resulting to any party from another public body's cooperative use of a County contract. The County assumes no responsibility for any notification of the availability of the Contract for use by other public bodies, but the Contractor may conduct such notification.

The Contractor agrees that other public bodies may utilize the Contract. The pricing in this Contract is specific to the volume, content and parameters outlined in RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK. As such, pricing may differ for another public body unless such entity purchases substantially the same goods and services at the same volume, and under the same parameters. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contractor agrees to allow other state, county, or municipal entities to purchase the goods or services covered by the Contract under the same terms and conditions stated in the Contract. The Contractor will provide those entities with customized price quotes specific to their needs.

The parties agree that this section 10 resolves the fourteenth exception under Tab 7, on page 60, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021.

11. Except as modified in these Negotiated Modifications, the Scope of Services, Section II of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK (Contract Document No. 8) and the General Contract Terms and Conditions, Section V of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK (Contract Document No. 3) remain in full force and effect.

12. The exceptions in Tab 7, on pages 58-61, of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021, shall be of no further force or effect. The remainder of the Contractor's Original Proposal dated September 21, 2021, remains in full force and effect.

13. By signing the Contract, the parties have approved these Negotiated Modifications. These Negotiated Modifications are effective as of the date of the last signature to the Contract.

Exhibit B

LICENSE AGREEMENT ADDENDUM

The County of Henrico, Virginia (the “County”), a political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and West Publishing Group, d/b/a West, a Thomson Reuters business (“Supplier”), a Minnesota corporation, are this day entering into Contract No. 2199A – Case Management System (the “Contract”) and, for their mutual convenience, the parties are using the standard form contract (“Order Form – Order ID Q-01540138”) provided by Supplier, which includes the following documents: (a) Order Form ID Q-01540138; (b) HighQ Product Specific Terms, Version 1.3, May 2021; (c) HighQ Information Security Controls, Version 1.0, April 2020; (d) HighQ Service Availability, Maintenance and Support, Version 1.1, July 2021; and (e) Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions, Version 3.0, Last Modified: August 3, 2021 (collectively, the “Agreement”). This License Agreement Addendum (“LAA”), duly signed by the County and Supplier (each a “Party”), is attached to and made a part of the Agreement and the Contract by incorporation, and with the Contract and the Agreement governs the use of any and all software and services licensed by the County under the Contract, the Agreement, and this LAA (the “Software”).

As used in this LAA, the term “Agreement” means the Supplier’s standard form contract and any and all exhibits and attachments thereto. The term(s) “Customer”, “You” or “you” as used in the Agreement and this LAA, means, as applicable, the County, or any of their officers, directors, agents or employees.

Supplier represents and warrants that it is a Minnesota corporation authorized to do in business in Virginia. If Supplier is not a U.S.-based entity, Supplier maintains a registered agent and a certification of authority to do business in Virginia.

The Agreement is generally acceptable to the County, with the exceptions noted in this LAA below. Despite the general acceptability of the Agreement, certain standard clauses may appear in, or be incorporated by reference into, the Agreement that cannot be accepted by the County. In consideration of the convenience of using Supplier’s standard form contract without the necessity of specifically negotiating a separate contract document, the Parties specifically agree that any of the following provisions contained in the Agreement are deemed void and will not have any effect and will not be enforceable against the County:

1. Requiring the application of the law of any state other than the Commonwealth of Virginia in interpreting or enforcing the Contract or Agreement or requiring or permitting that any dispute under the Contract or Agreement be resolved in any court other than the state courts located in Henrico County, Virginia. Section 11(d) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions will not have any effect and will not be enforceable against the County.
2. Requiring any total or partial compensation or payment for lost profit or liquidated damages by the County if the Contract is terminated before the end of its ordinary term.
3. Imposing any interest charge(s) contrary to that specified by § 2.2-4347 et seq. of the Code of Virginia.
4. Requiring the County to maintain any type of insurance for Supplier’s benefit.
5. Granting Supplier a security interest in any property of the County.
6. Requiring the County to indemnify, defend, or to hold harmless Supplier for any act or omission. Section 8(d) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions will not have any effect and shall not be enforceable against the County.
7. Limiting or adding to the time period within which claims can be made or actions can be brought by the Supplier (Reference Title 8.01 of the Code of Virginia).

Exhibit B

8. Limiting the County's selection and approval of counsel and approval of any settlement in any claim arising under the Contract or Agreement and in which the County is a named party.
9. Binding the County to engaging in arbitration or to complying with the decision of any arbitration board, commission, panel or other entity.
10. Obligating the County to pay Supplier's costs of collection or attorney's fees.
11. Requiring any dispute resolution procedure(s) other than those in accordance with § 2.2-4363 et seq. of the Code of Virginia.
12. Permitting Supplier to access any of the County's records or data, except pursuant to court order or as required for the performance of the Contract and Agreement.
13. Permitting Supplier to use any information provided by the County except for Supplier's own internal administrative purposes and as necessary for the performance of the Contract and Agreement.
14. Requiring the County to limit its rights or waive its remedies at law or in equity.
15. Bestowing any right, or incurring any obligation, that is beyond the duly granted authority of the undersigned representative of the County to bestow, or incur, on behalf of the County.
16. Establishing a presumption of severe or irreparable harm to Supplier by the actions or inactions of the County.
17. Limiting the liability of Supplier for property damage, death, or personal injury. This paragraph 17 shall modify Section 8(a) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions and shall supersede Section 8(a) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions to the extent of any conflict between the provisions.
18. Permitting Supplier to assign, subcontract, delegate or otherwise convey the Contract, the Agreement, or any of its rights and obligations under the Contract or Agreement, to any entity without the prior written consent of the County, except as set forth in paragraph 39 below.
19. Not complying with the contractual claims provision § 2.2-4363 of the Code of Virginia, which is also incorporated into this LAA, the Agreement, and the Contract by reference.
20. Enforcing the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and all other laws and international treaties or conventions relating to the sale of goods. They are expressly disclaimed. UCITA shall apply to the Agreement only to the extent required by § 59.1-501.15 of the Code of Virginia.
21. Not complying with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances.
22. Requiring that the County waive its sovereign immunity or other immunities.
23. Requiring that the County, which is tax exempt, be responsible for payment of any taxes, duties, or penalties.
24. Requiring or construing that any provision in the Agreement conveys any rights or interest in the County's data to Supplier, except for the limited license and right provided for in Section 3 of the HighQ Product Specific Terms and Section 2(e) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions.
25. Requiring the use of foreign currency. The currency used for the Contract and Agreement will be United States Dollars.
26. Obligating the County beyond approved and appropriated funding. All payment obligations from the County under the Agreement are subject to receipt of necessary appropriations from the County's Board of Supervisors, as provided by Virginia law. In the event of non-appropriation of funds for the items under the Agreement, the County may terminate, in whole or in part, the Agreement or any order, for those goods or services for which funds have not been appropriated. This may extend to the renewal of maintenance services for only some of the licenses granted by Supplier. The County shall provide written notice to the Supplier as soon as possible after funds have not been appropriated. There will be no time limit for termination due to termination for lack of appropriations.

27. Permitting unilateral modification of the Agreement by Supplier. Section 9(e) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions will not have any effect and will not be enforceable against the County.
28. Permitting termination by Supplier of the Agreement or the licenses granted pursuant to the Agreement, or permitting suspension of services by Supplier, except pursuant to an order from a court of competent jurisdiction. Sections 9(b) and 9(c) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions will not have any effect and will not be enforceable against the County.
29. Requiring or stating (a) that the terms of the Contract or this LAA are not applicable to the County's purchase of the Software or (b) that the terms of the Supplier's standard form contract will prevail over the terms of this LAA in the event of conflict. The fifth and sixth sentences of the preamble to the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions, the third sentence of Section 7(d) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions, and Section 11(k) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions will not have any effect and will not be enforceable against the County.
30. Renewing or extending the Agreement beyond the term set forth in the Contract or automatically continuing the Agreement from term to term. The second sentence of Section 9(a) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions will not have any effect and will not be enforceable against the County.
31. Requiring that the Agreement be "accepted" or endorsed by the home office or by any other officer subsequent to signing by an official of the County before the Agreement is considered in effect.
32. Delaying the acceptance of the Agreement or its effective date beyond the date of signing.
33. Defining "perpetual" license rights to have any meaning other than license rights that exist in perpetuity unless otherwise terminated in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Agreement.
34. Permitting modification or replacement of the Agreement pursuant to any new release, update or upgrade of Software, or subsequent renewal of maintenance. If Supplier provides any update or upgrade subject to additional payment, the County will have the right to reject such update or upgrade.
35. Requiring the purchase of a new release, update, or upgrade of Software, or subsequent renewal of maintenance, in order for the County to receive or maintain the benefits of Supplier's indemnification of the County against any claims of infringement on any third-party intellectual property rights.
36. Prohibiting the County from transferring or assigning to any entity the Agreement or any license to Software granted pursuant to the Agreement.
37. Granting Supplier or an agent of Supplier the right to audit or examine the books, records, or accounts of the County, except for the limited purpose of determining compliance with the Agreement. No more than once every 12 sequential calendar months, Supplier may review the County's books, records, or accounts for compliance with the Agreement after giving the County 30 days prior notice. This paragraph 37 modifies Section 11(c) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions and shall supersede Section 11(c) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions to the extent of any conflict between the provisions.

In addition to the provisions set forth above in this LAA, the Parties further agree as follows:

Exhibit B

38. Supplier warrants that it is the owner of the Software or otherwise has the right to grant to the County the license to use the Software granted under the Agreement without violating or infringing any law, rule, regulation, copyright, patent, trade secret, or other proprietary right of any third party.
39. Supplier may assign all or any of its rights and obligations to a third party as a result of a merger or acquisition or sale of all or substantially all of its assets to the third party so long as Supplier's assignee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions set forth in the Contract and the Agreement and provided that the third party is a U.S.-based entity or maintains a registered agent and a certification of authority to do business in Virginia. Supplier may assign all or any of its rights and obligations to an affiliate of Supplier, provided that Supplier remains liable for the affiliate's compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Contract and the Agreement. Section V.LL of RFP No. 21-2199-7JOK governs the Supplier's indemnification obligations with respect to claims of infringement.
41. The County will only be liable to pay for Supplier's travel-related expenses, including transportation, meals, lodging and incidental expenses that have been authorized by the County in advance. The travel-related expenses will be reimbursable at the County's then-current per diem rates.

This paragraph 44 shall modify Section 6 of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions and shall supersede Section 6 of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions to the extent of any conflict between the provisions.
45. Supplier acknowledges and agrees that the County is subject to the Virginia Public Records Act (Va. Code §§ 42.1-76 et seq.) and that the County's obligations under Section 9(d) of the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions are subject to the provisions of the Virginia Public Records Act.

RE: WEST/TR BAFO RESPONSE: RFP 21-2199-7JOK — Case Management System

This BAFO Response is respectfully submitted on behalf of West / Thomson Reuters by Sharon K. Cole, TR Account Manager, Government. This Response includes answers to the follow-up questions from the County's evaluation committee following the HighQ system demonstration on November 8, 2021. West's best and final offer ("BAFO") fee proposal along with updated sample order forms appended in this Response:

1. The County understands that the 500,000 OCR page limit is annual. Are there additional charges if the limit is exceeded? If yes, please explain how the charges are calculated.

West Response: Yes, additional annual OCR page capacity is available for HighQ subscribers, purchased in blocks of 500K pages. $833.00/mo. per 500K pages is the additional OCR page capacity rate as of Nov. 2021.

2. During the demonstration, you showed a potential integration with Practical Law. Are there other potential integrations within the Thomson Reuters universe? For example, could HighQ be integrated with Westlaw Edge? Please provide a "menu" of options, including pricing, and indicate any discounts available for bundled services (e.g., bundling HighQ with Westlaw Edge). The pricing should be your BAFO and should include your best price for storage.

West Response: HighQ offers integration with Practical Law on Westlaw, allowing HighQ users to customize, assign, and execute tasks that are set forth in a Practical Law Matter Map template. Westlaw with Practical Law module must be subscribed to utilize this HighQ integration. The Westlaw signon page can also be integrated into a HighQ Dashboard widget:

Additional HighQ integrations with Westlaw are scheduled for development, and HighQ subscribers will receive notifications as future Westlaw integrations are released. HighQ also integrates with TR's Elite 3E Data Insights, which is an attorneys-fees tracking solution that is offered for sale in the law firm market space.

- (a) Doc Auto allows for automated generation of documents either through workflow automation or by custom defined user-events. The information pulls from the data stored in HighQ and can be used with conditional settings or standar automated generation settings.
- (b) Workshare allows users to view the changes to a specific document through redlines and highlights of document versions. Additional available information includes document version timestamp; user-access timestamp and IP address of the document user.

West Response: No, HighQ is a no-code, cloud-based service that is not available for on-premise server deployment.

5. What vendor does Thomson Reuters use to host HighQ?

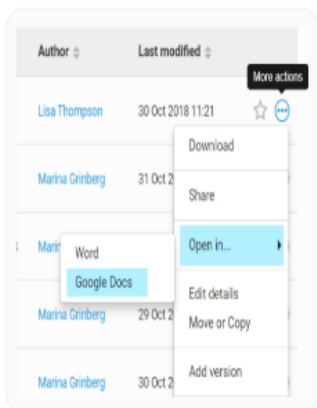

West Response: Thomson Reuters hosts HighQ on its own private-cloud network located in the United States.

6. Is the HighQ calendar integrated with a user's Outlook calendar?

West Response: Yes, an RSS feed is available for Outlook calendar integration.

7. Please describe (including screenshots) how a user uses the integration with Google Drive.

Users should go to Files and select the file that they want to work on. Click More Actions and choose the Open in Google Docs option.

Google Docs will open. If you are not logged in you must do so to edit a document. Other users can join the editing session to co-author the document. You can see all users in the editing session in the top right of the screen.

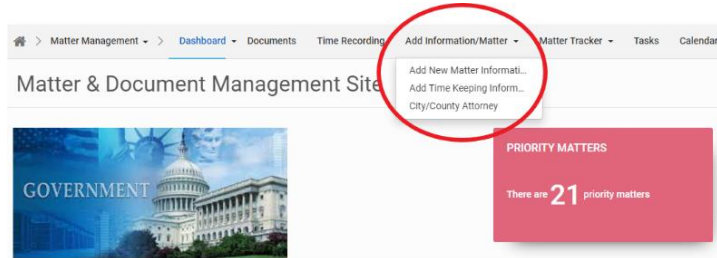

West Response: API integration is not necessary to seamlessly interact with Google Drive. HighQ users can start editing a Google document using Workspace without extra office tools installed on their device. Users have the option to create new office documents using Workspace integration or they can edit existing documents in the file module. Other users can join the editing session and once users have completed working on the document a new version is created in the files module, containing the edits from all users.

8. Please provide screenshots of the interface depicting matter creation and task set up; document storage, searching, and retrieval workflows; Outlook functionality; and site dashboards.

adies/Gentlemen,
Please make the following corrections, deletions and/or additions to the above referenced

1. Revised Receipt Date:
The proposal receipt date is changed to 11:00 a.m., local prevailing time, on Sept 2021.

Questions and Answers:

1. Our solution is a fully functional document management system that is built into the same location where the database is located and does not store them in Google Drive. Is this acceptable? Additionally, since you have a number of document management requirements in the RFP what is the need to integrate with Google Drive Stream (aka File Stream), which allows the user to browse through the na

Answer: Yes. Henrico County Public Schools (HCPS) uses Google Drive to store and collaborate on documents. Attorneys and paralegals representing HCPS use Google Drive Stream (aka File Stream), which allows the user to browse through the na rated to the solution, the Office prefers not to move such documents and files to a different location.

Paragraph II.B.10 requires integration with Google Drive. What features does Google offer that requires the integration?

Answer: Henrico County Public Schools (HCPS) uses Google Drive to store and collaborate on documents. Attorneys representing HCPS frequently must collaborate with their clients in Google Drive. The Office would like an automated process for managing attorney work product from Google Drive to the document management system.

What is the operating system currently used by the County, Windows or MAC? To what multiple operating systems are used, what percentage are Windows computers, and what percentage are MAC computers?

Answer: As stated in Section II.B.8 of the RFP, the solution should "[h]ave an intuitive interface that is web based, eliminating the need to install software on client devices and implementation and upgrades. The County wishes to avoid all browser plug-ins including Java, Flash, and Silverlight." Web features should not rely on particular Windows or Mac features. Approximately 50% of the Office will periodically access items using devices running iOS, iPadOS, or Android operating systems.

Will this "Case Management System" be used for FOIA requests and if so can you envision this workflow? Such as tracking, reviewing & redacting documents and request results with the requestor, etc.

Answer: The County is interested in using the system to process FOIA requests. Currently, FOIA officers initially route FOIA requests to our clients. Our clients provide documents to our office (typically via email or other electronic means). Our office reviews for legal compliance and potential exemptions. Typically, clients and/or FOIA officers respond to the requestor. Ideally, the system would not only allow our office to upload documents produced by our clients, track and notify the applicable deadlines, identify possible duplicates for manual confirmation, enable action of exempted material (including metadata), and send the documents via email to our clients with redactions.

Will Henrico like the ability in this case management tool to place custodians or hold in place (in both google & 365), once the hold is issued? If yes, will legal hold functionality be a requirement or desire?

Answer: A solution including a tool to notify custodians of legal holds, as well as automating receipt of data from the custodians to preserve, is of interest. The solution described is not a requirement, and the solution must address criteria in the RFP.

Answer: If an offeror has an on-premises (County-hosted) solution and a cloud (hosted) solution, the offeror should present pricing for both solutions so that we can evaluate the options available to it.

7. Does the County prefer a cloud solution?

Answer: The County does not have a preference. The County will evaluate based on the features of the software and its hosting platform relative to the RFP.

8. Is the County willing to share the ceiling amount for the solution?

Answer: The Office cannot obligate the County beyond approved and approved funding. The contract resulting from this procurement will be subject to annual appropriations by the Henrico County Board of Supervisors.

9. Does the County require a mobile responsive solution?

Answer: Please see Section II.B ("Desired Features") and GEN-06, GEN-07, GEN-08 in Attachment F.

10. How many systems should the case management solution integrate with?

Answer: The solution should integrate with the products and services identified in RFP and Attachments F & G.

11. Is there an estimate on how the 25 users will be assigned as administrators, users, or standard users? This will help us in pricing the bid correctly.

Answer: The Office estimates that 2-3 users will be assigned as "administrators" and 2-3 users would be considered "power users." The remaining users would be standard users.

12. Should we consider annual licensing fees as a part of the annual support, or should these be broken out separately?

Answer: Please break out annual licensing fees separately from annual support.

13. Is there a known budget or budget range for this project for Years 1, 2, and 3?

Answer: The Office cannot obligate the County beyond approved and approved funding. The contract resulting from this procurement will be subject to annual appropriations by the Henrico County Board of Supervisors.

14. What form of database does the CATS system use?

Answer: Oracle (and APEX). Please see the answers to Questions 2 and 3.

browser using File Explorer while the files are still saved in Google Drive. Attorneys representing HCPS frequently must collaborate with their clients in Google Drive. The Office would like an automated process for downloading attorney work product from Google Drive to the document management system.

What database does the current CATS system utilize?

Answer: Oracle (and APEX).

Can you provide table and field names to determine a level of effort to convert the data?

Answer: All data is stored in a relational Oracle database. The data model for CATS is primarily based on a case. Cases are generally placed into a folder. Common data points that are included on the case consist of basic case data, trial information, dates, and retention information. The case table also includes several code tables for referencing departments, counsel, types, courts, judges, and dispositions.

A case does have a few one-to-many relationships, primarily on claims, paratransit assignments. The claims table also has a few relationships on its own, for status and adjusters.

Finally, there is the ability to cross reference cases in a separate table, where a case ID can be linked with another.

Does the CATS system contain links to the documents stored on the network storage device? If not, how are documents stored within the network storage device and what is the name of a folder that corresponds to a matter/case name/number in CATS?

Answer: No. Individual attorneys store electronic documents in their native format on personal folders on the network storage drive. The folders maintained by an attorney on the network storage drive do not correspond to a matter/case name in CATS. Rather, CATS provides a file number and location for paper files.

How does your product perform some but not all functions identified in the RFP. How should we respond?

Answer: Please indicate in your proposal the functionalities and/or components requested in the RFP that your solution does and does not provide. The County negotiates and awards more than one contract if the County determines that multiple products are necessary to provide the functionality desired by the County Attorney Office.

Does the County require pricing for both on-premises and cloud solutions?

Can the CATS data be exported to a CSV file for conversion purposes, if needed?

Answer: Yes. The Office will discuss the actual conversion process with the Successful Offeror.

What is the size of the CATS database?

Answer: 10MB.

Is the CATS system the only data source for migration of case and contact information? If not, please provide details about other data sources for the contact migration.

Answer: Please see the answer to Question 19 regarding drive-based document repositories. Other potential sources are the Outlook contact lists maintained by individual attorneys.

Is it possible to obtain a list of all fields used by the CATS system?

Answer: The Office will provide a full data model to the Successful Offeror. For information, please see the answer to Question 3.

Paragraph II.A.3 references approximately 1TB of various documents saved in existing network storage drive. How many drive-based document repositories are migrated? For each drive-based document repository, please include the size total number of folders and files. To the extent there is more than one drive-based document repository, are those expected to remain independent or come together?

Answer: There is a single network storage drive with approximately 1TB of data (consisting of folders and files).

Paragraph II.A.3 requests a migration plan for "certain" existing data. Will all data from the source locations be migrated? If only certain portions will be migrated, County willing to move documents and files that will not be migrated to a different location?

Answer: The Office intends to discuss the scope of migration during negotiations in accordance with Section VIII.B. To the extent any documents and files will not be migrated to the solution, the Office prefers not to move such documents and files to a different location.

Paragraph II.G.2 references Google document files. Will documents be migrated to Google Drive?

Answer: The Office intends to discuss the scope of migration during negotiations in accordance with Section VIII.B. To the extent any documents and files will not

In regards to Requirement Attachment F – DISC-8 "System allows users to send and receive documents through a secure portal" Can you please share an example of receiving and sending documents?

Answer: Examples of sending and receiving documents may not be limited to the discovery context and include (among others): 1) the negotiation of a contract that includes sending and receiving drafts to and from counsel representing the other well as the Office's clients, 2) the receipt and production of documents from an opposing counsel in discovery, and 3) the receipt and delivery of documents (i.e., requests, drafts of contracts, resolutions, etc.) from and to our clients.

Would you like to be able to have authorized users collect from multiple data sources such as 365 & Google in one single tool?

Answer: The Office would consider a single tool that can collect from both Office and Google drive provided that it addresses the criteria in the RFP.

Outside of Google & 365 which other data sources are required for collection?

Answer: Adobe and other products and services identified in the RFP and Attachment F and G.

This question is specifically for the "Discovery Management" component of the RFP. There is a desire for a tool that uses single-instance storage, where only one copy of a document is saved, allowing for the re-use of critical review labels/tags and redactions be carried over to multiple cases? But at the same time still, allowing for matter labels/tags to be applied and not carried over to multiple cases?

Answer: The proposal should explain how the tool addresses criteria in the RFP that addresses criteria in the RFP, the Office will consider it.

Would the County consider two different tools if they can meet and exceed all requirements and desires outlined in this RFP?

Answer: If the two tools combined could meet and exceed all requirements and desires in the RFP, the Office would consider them.

Are specifications and General Contract Terms and Conditions shall remain the same? Must take due notice and be governed accordingly. Failure to acknowledge this may result in your proposal being rejected.

Network monitoring and protection

Thomson Reuters uses a wide variety of automated monitoring systems to provide a high level of service performance and availability.

Our monitoring tools are designed to detect unusual or unauthorized activities and conditions at ingress and egress communication points. These tools monitor server and network usage, port scanning activities, application usage, and unauthorized intrusion attempts. The tools have the ability to set custom performance metrics thresholds for unusual activity.

Systems within Thomson Reuters are extensively instrumented to monitor key operational metrics. Alarms are configured to automatically notify operations and management personnel when early warning thresholds are crossed on key operational metrics. An on-call schedule is used so personnel are always available to respond to operational issues.

The Thomson Reuters network provides significant protection against traditional network security issues. The following are a few examples:

Distributed Denial of Service (DDoS) attacks

Endpoints are hosted on large, internet-scale, worldclass infrastructure. Industry leading DDoS mitigation techniques are used. Additionally, our networks are multi-homed across a number of providers to achieve internet access diversity.

Man in the Middle (MITM) attacks

The HighQ platform is available via TLS-protected endpoints which provide server authentication.

IP spoofing

Thomson Reuters instances cannot send spoofed network traffic. Our controlled, host-based firewall infrastructure will not permit an instance to send traffic with a source IP or MAC address other than its own.

Port scanning

Unauthorized port scans by our customers are a violation of the terms agreed in contract. Violations are taken seriously, and every reported violation is investigated. Customers can report suspected abuse via their dedicated Customer Success Manager. When unauthorized port scanning is detected by Thomson Reuters, it is stopped and blocked.

Packet sniffing by other tenants

It is not possible for a virtual instance to receive or “sniff” traffic that is intended for a different virtual instance. The hypervisor will not deliver any traffic to them that is not addressed to them. Even two virtual instances that are owned by the same customer located on the same physical host cannot listen to each other's traffic. Attacks such as ARP cache poisoning do not work within the HighQ platform. While we provide ample protection against one customer inadvertently or maliciously attempting to view another's data, as a standard practice, we also encrypt all network traffic to and from the application.

In addition to monitoring, regular vulnerability scans are performed on the host operating system, web application, and databases in the Thomson Reuters environment as well as daily scans for any changes in the production environment. Also, our security team subscribes to newfeeds for applicable vendor flaws and proactively monitor vendors' websites and other relevant outlets for new patches.

Authentication

All users require a userID and password to access the system. The user can select their password subject to the following restrictions:

- Must be at least 8 characters in length
- Must contain at least one integer and one CAPS
- Cannot be the userID
- Cannot be blank

Users are required to change their password the first time they log in to the extranet and can change their password at any time after that (considering the rules above) via the 'Forgotten my Password' link.

Password history is retained for five iterations and prevents re-use of the same password in this period.

Passwords are never stored or visible to Thomson Reuters employees. They are salted using a unique string and SHA-256 hashed before being committed to the database. Further restrictions can be enabled via two factor authentications, IP address restriction, and site level passwords.

User lockout

After three failed authentication attempts, the user account is locked and the user is required to reset their password.

Logout

Users are directed to logout at the end of every session. No data is held on the client PC and logging out or closing the browser will invalidate the current session.

Session timeouts

Connected user sessions to the application require reauthentication after a period of 30 minutes of standing idle. This timeout period can be altered at client request.

User access control

Access control privileges assigned to users are validated every page hit/script execution and are consistent across the site.

Link structure

All links are maintained through our development/build process. Within the application's coding, care has been taken to ensure that any unnecessary links have been removed (not commented out) from the site.

Additionally, all comments are visible in source only and not displayed client-side.

Secure communications

All communications between the browser and the application are encrypted, including logon (user authentication). Encryption is provided as a default of 256-bit AES TLSv1.2.

File upload/download

All file uploads and downloads to the server are over a default of 256-bit AES TLSv1.2.

Error messages

All error messages are controlled and give away minimal information if displayed. Examples include:

- Failed login does not define whether the userID or password was incorrect.
- All links are maintained through our development/build process. Any missing pages display a pre-defined "catch all" error page and do not give away any architectural information.

Incorrectly formatted input is validated both on client side before submission and server-side before processing.

Footprint

No sensitive data is ever stored on the client PC. The sole item of data kept on the client PC is a unique session identifier that is removed when the browser session ends.

Session management

Sessions are tracked by encrypted session IDs. Session IDs are of an appropriate length and complexity to prevent a client being able to hijack another session by altering their session ID.

Bounds checking and parameter evaluation

All input fields available within the site check the inputted data before processing it. This checking occurs on the server side as well as client side.

Common file queries

All manufacturer supplied demonstration and sample files are removed from the site host before being published to the internet.

Any other files or file types associated with any application that can be misused are obfuscated or removed.

Compatibility

All applications are compatible with Internet Explorer® 7 (and above) and the latest two versions of Safari®, Chrome™, and Firefox®. Fully responsive design for iOS® delivered by Apple® iTunes Store®.

Also, the data held by the application host is in a format transferable i.e., returned to the client or passed to another ASP. Documents are held in their native format.

Source code

The HTML source code provides no unnecessary information revealing important information about the application architecture, the coding routines, the personal details of the author, or any vulnerability that the application may be exposed to.

Path truncation

Users cannot request a site directory page. There is a default file located within each directory and directory listings are disabled in the web server configuration files.

Cross site scripting

The application is hardened against cross site scripting vulnerabilities. This is implemented via both application firewall and within the application itself.

SQL injection

The application is hardened against SQL injection vulnerabilities. This is implemented via both application firewall and within the application itself.

Monitoring

The application, features logging at the application level.

Audit information is made available to client administrators via the application itself.

While infrastructure logs are not normally provided due to shared infrastructure and client confidentiality, our security team will assist where possible in any security incident investigation.

Infrastructure logs would only otherwise be provided to relevant authorities if required by law, rule or regulation, or requested in any judicial or administrative proceeding or by any governmental or regulatory authority.

Staff

Thomson Reuters staff who have physical access to the application hardware and storage media are vetted and have a suitable employment contract, including confidentiality agreements.

The number of staff who have administrative access to the application has been controlled and minimized.

Staff have received a level of security awareness training and are aware of the IT Security Policy and supporting procedures as they apply to their job role.

Architecture controls

Server configuration has been well thought through and documented. Care is taken to ensure that unnecessary services are stopped and disabled; default passwords are replaced with strong passwords; default accounts are removed and/or renamed; log files are protected; patches are applied in a timely fashion. Automatic updates are disabled.

OS installation

Default accounts have been changed and/or disabled. All demonstration folders and data have been removed.

Patch application

All hardware and software involved in the provision of the application are patched to the latest level within an acceptable time frame. Patches are tested prior to implementation to ensure that the patch has been effective, that no new vulnerabilities have been introduced, and that interconnecting systems can still interact as required. Automatic updates/patches are disabled.

Joiners and leavers

Staff who leave the company will have their access rights removed immediately. We maintain an active off-boarding policy for staff leaving the company where all access rights are removed immediately.

Code management

All source code is controlled and managed appropriately. This includes version control, change control, testing cycles, and a secure holding area. Only authorized staff are able to access the source code and/or save to the holding area.

Maintaining user database

User records are stored in a protected environment and kept up-to-date. The user database is not used for any marketing, research, or any purpose other than the intended document sharing and log files.

Service failure notification

In the event of an application failure, users are notified of the service interruption by use of a front page offering contact details in case of urgent matters.

Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure. See Tab 7 West's Exceptions to Terms and Conditions.

Licensing. Thomson Reuters' Response to RFP Pricing assumes 25 concurrent internal user licenses, which includes 5 external user for each internal user license. Additional internal user licenses can be added by contract modification, and each additionally added user license will include 5 external user licenses. See sample order forms attached at Tab 5.

Deployment Platforms. HighQ is a cloud-based platform that is accessible via any internet connection and also via mobile app. HighQ updates are made in real-time as entered by users.

Scope and Nature of the Solution. Today's legal departments are complex, and increasing challenges are making day-to-day work harder. With a lack of a central repository, data is often siloed, lost in emails, and unorganized. Manual processes are time-consuming and labor-intensive. Collaboration is often disjointed or non-existent. This inefficiency across work processes is causing many legal departments to re-think how they work.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF HIGHQ

HighQ is a cloud based collaborative office management solution that will allow your agencies to work Smarter-Faster-Simpler.

HIGHQ FOR GOVERNMENT LEGAL DEPARTMENTS

HighQ is used by multiple types of Government Agencies across the United States. The uses of HighQ vary by agency from Matter and Case Management to Legal Services Intake, Public Records Request Management, Contract Lifecycle and Review, as well as many more.

HighQ is an intuitive, flexible, and expandable solution that increases productivity and efficiency through intelligent tools that automate workflows, improve collaboration, and help manage documents. Designed to meet government accessibility requirements, HighQ is cloud-based, secure, and quick to deploy.

Legal Request Intake and Matter Management

Many teams today struggle to manage and connect the intake process. Manual and time-consuming processes often result in errors and data falling through the cracks. HighQ can automate and streamline the matter intake process and ensure your information is organized in one central repository so you can capture everything that comes through your legal department with full visibility. Easily add a record from a common location; and automated, sophisticated workflows will assign the correct lawyer, send an email back to the requestor, and set up tasks based on the entry. In addition, you can easily run reports to view the information you need. HighQ simplifies and automates the entire process.

Document Management

Government legal departments often keep documents in multiple silos across devices and systems, making it difficult to locate and search. Documents cannot be securely shared, so collaboration is impossible. With HighQ, your documents will be in a secure, single location that you can easily search and retrieve anywhere. Audit and version history ensures that you have full transparency into who has been working on a document and that you are working on the most recent version of the document. Powerful permissions capability allows complete flexibility over who has access to documents, including individuals outside of the agency.

Document Automation

Government agencies frequently draft the same agreements, policies, or notices over and over. This is both inefficient and creates the risk of human error inherent with manual drafting. HighQ document automation provides a faster, more efficient, and more consistent way of drafting and completing documents. With HighQ document automation, a document that would normally take hours to finish can be done in minutes.

HighQ's mission is to transform the way legal departments work and engage with their internal departments, outside counsel, and colleagues. Being at the center of digital transformation initiatives, our intelligent platform supports team productivity, collaboration, and engagement by helping build truly connected, automated and efficient workplaces. This results in greater efficiency, transparency, and innovation.

Automate legal processes

LEADING THE MARKET IN LEGAL TECHNOLOGY.

In 2019, HighQ was named “Legal Technology Company of the Year” by the Financial Times - both in the publication’s annual ceremony and the FT Intelligent Business Report. The British Technology Awards honored HighQ as “Supplier of the Year” in November of 2019, an award that recognizes suppliers that are reshaping the future of law departments and legal businesses. As a result, HighQ, along with Thomson Reuters, is widely recognized as a top legal supplier in demonstrating excellence in legal technology and client-focused services.

MANAGING CORE WORKFLOWS IN A SINGLE SPACE.

Transform your department with the integrated legal operations hub. Contract management, document management, case and matter management, legal intake and self-service and vendor management all come together in one collaborative space. One platform is all you need.

BRINGING BOTH PEOPLE AND TECHNOLOGY TOGETHER.

The HighQ intelligent work platform brings people together to collaborate on files, matters, and transactions. We know that integration is essential, because, just like your team, your technology solutions need to work together. The HighQ platform excels at collaboration, task management, external vendor engagement, critical workflows, and other capabilities that make daily routines more efficient. HighQ integrates with core productivity tools to make them easily accessible from within HighQ.

SAFEGUARDS SENSITIVE INFORMATION.

The world’s largest law firms, financial institutions, corporate legal departments, and governments trust HighQ to safeguard and share their most sensitive information. Out-of-the-box, HighQ’s secure cloud follows NIST SP800-63b guidelines, delivers highly available 99.9% uptime, offers banking grade encryption, and is monitored by our team 24/7.

CONFIGURABILITY AND USABILITY

HighQ Premium is more of a configurable rather than customizable solution. This model results in faster ability for clients to adopt new functionality and modify the platforms as their business needs change. In addition to adoption speed, our configurable model enables clients to make these changes at a lower cost than other solutions. The configurable approach also ensures that clients do not have to worry about customizations preventing system upgrades, improving long-term ease of use.

ACCESSIBLE ANYTIME, ANYWHERE.

Built from the ground up to support the mobile nature of business, the HighQ platform enables your team to work together efficiently, regardless of where they are or what device they are using. Whether you are interacting with HighQ as part of a more efficient work process or delivering engaging content to clients, the platform automatically adjusts to whatever device, browser, or operating system is being used. From laptop to desktop to mobile device, you'll never have to think about how users are accessing your solution. It just works, flawlessly.

SCHEDULING AND CALENDARING AND INTEGRATION WITH MICROSOFT OFFICE 365

HighQ offers a calendar and task system that can be automated with workflows. Our Office add-in and advanced Office 365 integration enables you to view, create and collaboratively edit Word, Excel, and PowerPoint files in real-time and save them in HighQ. The Office plugin allows you to file your emails, attachments, and files directly to your Collaborate instance, from your inbox or from Microsoft Office. (see screen shot below)

Unique Capabilities

Stay better connected

Securely share and collaborate on generated documents and leverage data collected in other systems to avoid re-keying in the questionnaire.

Workflow and process automation

Automate the generation of single or document suites and route them for approval using automated workflows, and track the progress.

On-demand document assembly

Empower anyone to generate fully drafted and branded legal documents by filling out an online form, which automatically pushes the submitted data into the template.

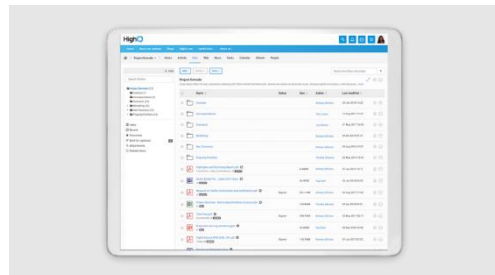

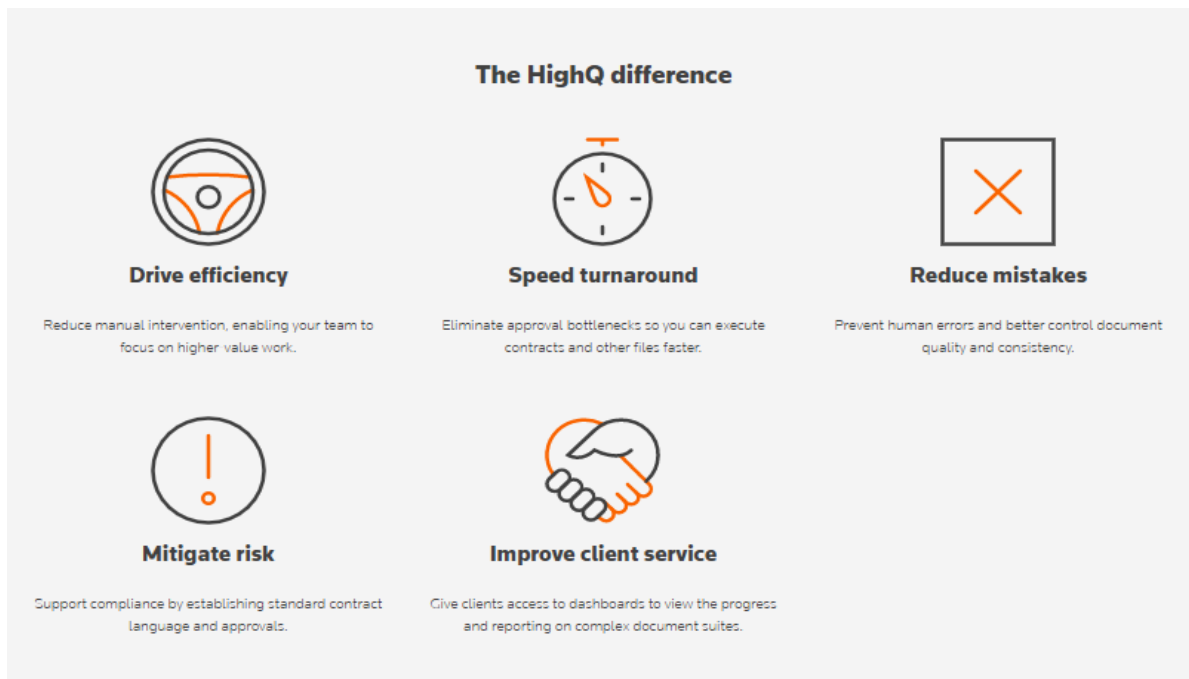

Data collection and management

Use the data that surrounds your document automation process to identify trends, interrogate deal specifics and support due diligence—and visualize it in dashboards.

Seamless document management

Manage the documents in HighQ's central, secure repository, where you can easily access, organize, share, track, audit and archive every version.

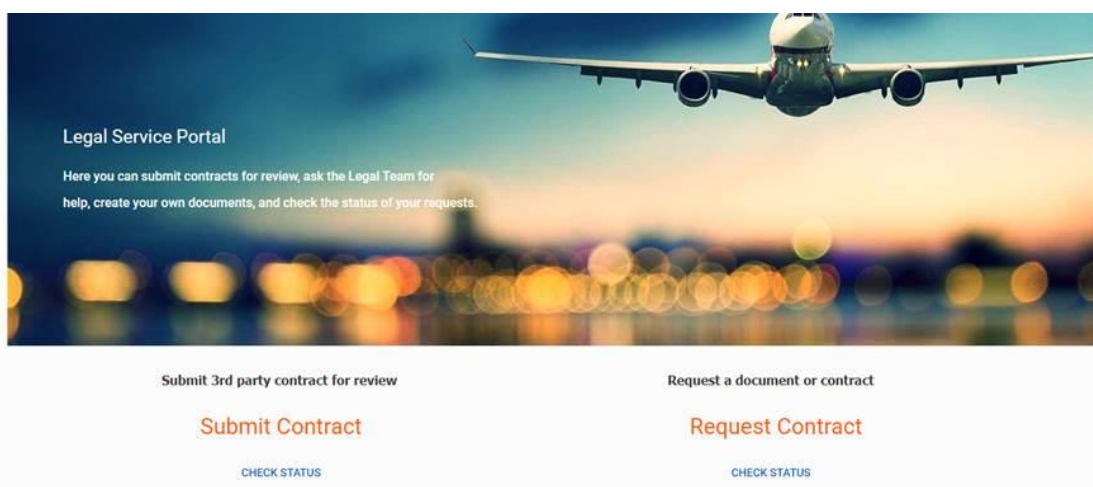

HIGHQ AI

When a file is uploaded to the HighQ Files module, it is sent to the AI Hub, analyzed, key data points are extracted, and this data is then stored in the AI Hub. From the AI Hub, this data can then be used to enrich File Metadata iSheets (custom file metadata) or to use in the Data Visualization dashboard panel. This metadata gives insights into the documents you are dealing with.

HighQ also integrates with leading AI engines such as Kira, Leverton or Eigen or your own AI engine.

INTAKE SUBMISSION

Improving the delivery of strategic and responsive services is a vital objective of all legal teams. HighQ is focused on delivering an intuitive, secure portal to standardize the legal service request process. Improve legal service delivery through smart self-service tools and triage systems by analyzing intake data and enable your customers with self-service contract assembly and legal guidance.

MASTER DASHBOARD

A dashboard centralizing data from all legal operations workflows. Configure key performance indicators using HighQ's data visualization tools to measure workload and spot risks. HighQ data visualization dashboards allow you to quickly see your agencies analytics in easy to read charts and graphs that are configurable to your needs and can change as your needs change.

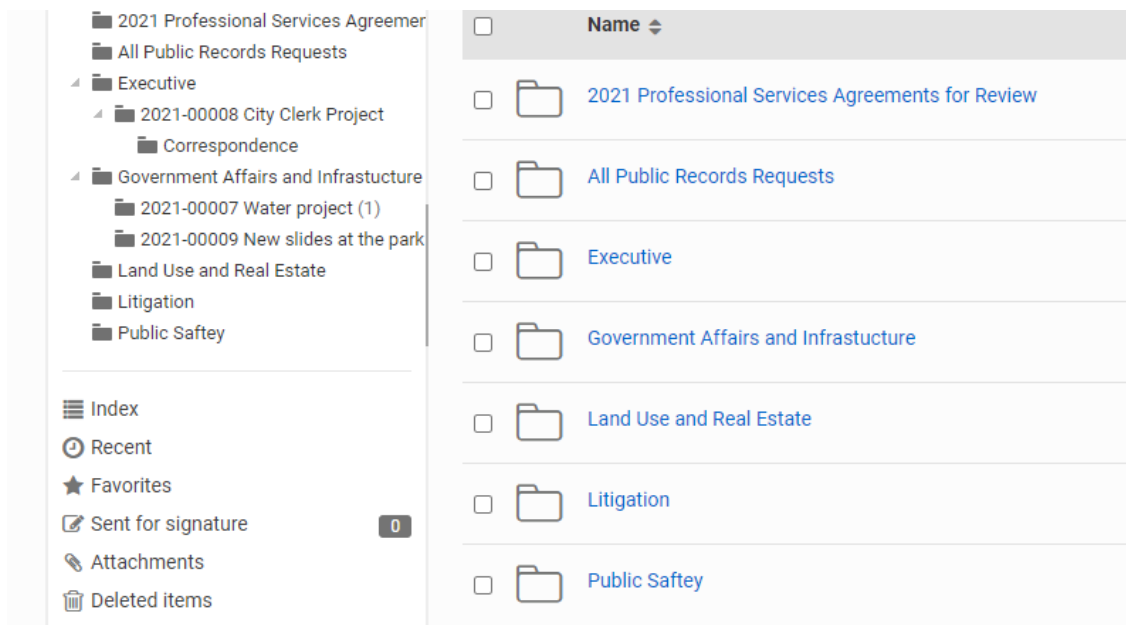

FILES AND FOLDER STRUCTURE

A default folder structure for each contract life cycle phase linked to the automated workflow rules. Almost any type of content can be searched in HighQ, including:

- the full text of files in the Files module- including PDF document
- wiki pages
- tags added to a blog post, iSheets and more

Comments, @mentions and #tags all available on documents as well as workshare redlining and automatic saving of document versions. Integration with Word (Microsoft Office 2013 (365) or newer), Word online and Google Docs allows for document editing. Workflows allow for accepting and rejecting of changes on documents.

OUT-OF-THE-BOX WORKFLOWS

Automated workflows to ensure consistent processes are kept for all contracts throughout the lifecycle including expiry notifications, task allocations & key status notifications.

HighQ with Doc Auto provides a flexible approval engine and process for any document. Approvals occur either in sequence or in parallel workflows with legal review for compliance and accuracy. While multiple departments review simultaneously or in sequence, notifications and status alerts are automatically sent via email, as well as being available in a task inbox. Approved documents are sent in a password protected PDF file for signatures, using secure and advanced DocuSign® or Adobe® Sign integration. Each document is subject to an audit trail, giving legal management a complete picture of how a contract was executed and where it is in the signatory process.

DATA CONVERSION

Conversion of data is highly dependent on the legacy platform the data is coming from. HighQ has an open RESTful API allowing the agency to develop a conversion. We provide access to a developer community within HighQ that provides documentation and discussion groups. HighQ also offers access to a Swagger site with API instructions that can be copied and pasted. We also offer additional Professional services to assist with the APIs on the HighQ end. HighQ includes an office plugin which allows you to drag and drop documents or folders from Windows Explorer to your HighQ site.

TAB 4 – HIGHQ PROJECT APPROACH AND METHODOLOGY

Project Approach and Methodology. The Office will have a discovery discussion with the US-based HighQ Project Manager to determine needs. The proposed base HighQ solution will cover most needs from managing documents, cases, legal requests, contracts and more. Having one integrated solution is the cost-effective approach of choosing HighQ.

The HighQ Implementation Team provides training to the Office’s selected HighQ System Administrators. The Office’s System Administrators will then provide training to Office staff with the assistance of the HighQ Project Manager and other HighQ support personnel. HighQ’s Project Manager and the assigned TR Government Account Manager work with the Office’s Designated Representative and selected System Administrators to make sure everyone is trained and comfortable using HighQ prior to project close and shifting to post-sale support resources. Because HighQ is a no-code system, the administrators can be office administrators or attorneys, it is not a requirement for the Office to dedicate its IT personnel as primary system administrator(s).

Each HighQ implementation is unique. The implementation timeline will be dependent on the needs and availability of the determined administrator at each agency. A typical implementation will be about 60-90 days. Below is a sample project plan:

Data Conversion. Conversion of data is highly dependent on the legacy platform the data is coming from. HighQ has an open RESTful API, allowing the Office to develop a conversion. TR provides access to an online developer community within HighQ that provides documentation and discussion groups. HighQ also offers access to a Swagger site with API instructions that can be copied and pasted. HighQ includes an MS Office plugin which allows drag and drop documents or folders from Windows Explorer to your HighQ site. TR offers purchase of additional Professional Services to assist with the API integration with HighQ. TR's Scope of Professional Services does not encompass staffing to perform data conversion on behalf of the Office.

HighQ Updates. HighQ has updates/enhancements 2-3 times a year, to include bug fixes and patches. Post-Sales HighQ support channels will alert the Office system administrators on any new updates/enhancements as they are released.

Implementation Training. Included in the base price of HighQ are three administrative training sessions, up to 5 hours of total base-included training time. These sessions are taped and added to your HighQ instance for reference at any time. The completion of these three sessions is required before the working sessions with the HighQ Consultant can begin. The HighQ Consultant will then schedule working sessions with the administrators to assist and educate on the configuration of HighQ to meet the agency's needs, including availability of numerous pre-built workflow and other templates. HighQ Implementation Team will enable the agency administrators to conduct end user trainings and offer additional trainings as needed. Additional hours of implementation training can be purchased beyond the 5 hours of base-included training time. Purchase of additional training can be utilized to help build more complex workflows desired by the Office.

Ongoing Support. HighQ offers a US-based 800# support number, e-mail support, dedicated TR Account Manager, dedicated HighQ Product Specialist, online HighQ step-by-step tutorials, HighQ Knowledge Base and Development Community as other avenues of ongoing support.

Anticipated Application Dispositions. HighQ has an open rest API allowing integration with many other solutions. HighQ with Doc Auto provides a flexible approval engine and process for any document. Approvals occur either in sequence or in parallel workflows with legal review for compliance and accuracy. Approved documents are sent in a password protected PDF file for signatures, using secure and advanced DocuSign® or Adobe® Sign integration. Each document is subject to an audit trail, giving the Office a complete picture of how a contract was executed and where it is in the signatory process. API integration is not required for HighQ to seamlessly interact with Google Drive.

HighQ Optional Add-On Services.

- Professional Services to assist with API integrations
- Additional Implementation Training Time to assist in building complex workflows
- Additional Storage Capacity. Unlimited storage is available and must be purchased in blocks of 500GB
- Contracts Analysis. Contracts module includes set reminders for renewals, expiration, and much more

HighQ as legal collaboration hub – API Integrations

- Extends your existing technology investments
- Works well with the tools your team already uses
- Allows external sharing of internal systems' information

HIGHQ AI INTEGRATION

When a file is uploaded to the HighQ Files module, it is sent to the AI Hub, analyzed, key data points are extracted, and this data is then stored in the AI Hub. From the AI Hub, this data can then be used to enrich File Metadata iSheets (custom file metadata) or to use in the Data Visualization dashboard panel. This metadata gives insights into the documents you are dealing with.

HighQ also integrates through API with leading AI engines such as Kira, Leverton or Eigen.

The following requirements relate to the security and auditability of the solution.

ID	Requirement	S	Cf	Cs	U	NA	Describe how this requirement will be met Please see HighQ security detail at Tab 2, pages 10-15
SEC-01	System primarily supports federated web authentication via County hosted Active Directory Federation Services (AD FS), or other means of Active Directory integration. Core County users should be using AD to authenticate.	X					HighQ supports integration with active directory through an active directory connector that can be configured with assistance of our professional services team. Core users will be able to authenticate with active directory.
SEC-02	The system needs to allow for non-AD accounts to be created. These would be used for non County staff that need access to the system.	X					If AD SSO is enabled, other external users may be added to the system manually. Those users will then be presented with a form-based authentication option allowing them to access with a username and password.
SEC-03	System must have security at form level so it can limit which forms/screens a user can access	X					All content in HighQ can be permissioned to prevent any users from editing and/or viewing content within the application. Also, users can be preventing from seeing entire screens and/or modules within the application.
SEC-04	For non-AD accounts (or if System cannot accommodate AD), system must encrypt passwords in storage and transmission, satisfy security criteria (e.g., minimum length, special characters, etc.), and require periodic changes."	X					Stored passwords are encrypted. System settings allow for setting minimum security criteria and requiring periodic password changes.
SEC-05	Users accounts need to be able to be set up using application security.	X					User account creation is restricted to administrative users. User must then be assigned permissions for each site the user is granted access, controlling what they can and cannot access for that site.
SEC-06	User accounts need to be able to be set up using mixed authentication	X					Users may access the system through an SSO authentication, or they may access using a form-based username and password. Authentication may be configured to require 2 factor authentication and individual sites may be further password protected as needed.

SEC-07	System captures audit and history information regarding adds, changes, and deletes on all fields, including but not limited to date of change, who made the change, and which attribute(s) changed.	X					Audit trails are available for most actions taken by users. These audit reports are available to users with administrative rights and contain information what, when and who for tracked changes.
SEC-08	System includes an internal security structure that provides application administrators with the tools to control access to each part of the software based on user roles and functions.	X					User permissions control what a user can see and do across all modules of the application. Those permissions may be either a one time configuration or based on group permissions (roles) that can be used across multiple users.
SEC-09	System allows for the ability to create and terminate temporary user access automatically after a defined period of time.	X					User can create links for limited access to specific content that has a user defined expiry. The user has access only to the linked content and that link and access will automatically expire after the defined duration.
SEC-10	System must feature security protocols that temporarily lock accounts after a predetermined number of unsuccessful login attempts and automatically logout users after a defined period of inactivity.	X					Administrators have the option to configure account lockout after a defined number of failed login attempts. Inactivity periods may also be configured, which will automatically terminate a user session after a defined period of time.
SEC-11	System has the ability to log basic information about user access activity, system events, errors, and access violation reports. Logs must capture the following: user authentication, type of event, date and time, success or failure indication, origination of event, identity or name of affected data, system, component, or resource.	X					Audit reports are available on successful and failed login attempts. Reports also capture data events, such as creation and deletion. All logs track identifying information about the event, such as a username or IP address, what the action attempted was and success or failure, as applicable.
SEC-12	System has the ability to enforce audit trails for administrator-defined record types and transactions including - log on attempts-account creation and modification.	X					Logins (both successful and failed) are tracked. In addition reports about user creation and modification are available as well. Other reporting and tracking is available.
SEC-13	System needs to allow for password recovery for non-AD accounts only.	X					Password recovery is available for all users who authenticate with a form-based username and password through a request initiated by the user or through an administrative option.
SEC-14	System must use HTTPS for all traffic.	X					See https://knowledge.highq.com/help/getting-started/platformurl-context-name-and-cname-instructions

Application security

Authentication

All users require a userID and password to access the system. The user can select their password subject to the following restrictions:

- Must be at least 8 characters in length
- Must contain at least one integer and one CAPS
- Cannot be the userID
- Cannot be blank

Users are required to change their password the first time they log in to the extranet and can change their password at any time after that (considering the rules above) via the 'Forgotten my Password' link.

Password history is retained for five iterations and prevents re-use of the same password in this period.

Passwords are never stored or visible to Thomson Reuters employees. They are salted using a unique string and SHA-256 hashed before being committed to the database. Further restrictions can be enabled via two factor authentications, IP address restriction, and site level passwords.

User lockout

After three failed authentication attempts, the user account is locked and the user is required to reset their password.

Logout

Users are directed to logout at the end of every session. No

Secure communications

All communications between the browser and the application are encrypted, including logon (user authentication). Encryption is provided as a default of 256-bit AES TLSv1.2.

File upload/download

All file uploads and downloads to the server are over a default of 256-bit AES TLSv1.2.

Error messages

All error messages are controlled and give away minimal information if displayed. Examples include:

- Failed login does not define whether the userID or password was incorrect.
- All links are maintained through our development/build process. Any missing pages display a pre-defined "catch all" error page and do not give away any architectural information.

Incorrectly formatted input is validated both on client side before submission and server-side before processing.

Footprint

No sensitive data is ever stored on the client PC. The sole item of data kept on the client PC is a unique session identifier that is removed when the browser session ends.

Monitoring

The application, features logging at the application level.

Audit information is made available to client administrators via the application itself.

While infrastructure logs are not normally provided due to shared infrastructure and client confidentiality, our security team will assist where possible in any security incident investigation.

Infrastructure logs would only otherwise be provided to relevant authorities if required by law, rule or regulation, or requested in any judicial or administrative proceeding or by any governmental or regulatory authority.

Link structure

All links are maintained through our development/build process. Within the application's coding, care has been taken to ensure that any unnecessary links have been removed (not commented out) from the site.

Additionally, all comments are visible in source only and not displayed client-side.

Source code

The HTML source code provides no unnecessary information revealing important information about the application architecture, the coding routines, the personal details of the author, or any vulnerability that the application may be exposed to.

Path truncation

Users cannot request a site directory page. There is a default file located within each directory and directory listings are disabled in the web server configuration files.

Cross site scripting

The application is hardened against cross site scripting vulnerabilities. This is implemented via both application firewall and within the application itself.

SQL Injection

The application is hardened against SQL injection vulnerabilities. This is implemented via both application firewall and within the application itself.

Joiners and leavers

Staff who leave the company will have their access rights removed immediately. We maintain an active off-boarding policy for staff leaving the company where all access rights are removed immediately.

Code management

All source code is controlled and managed appropriately. This includes version control, change control, testing cycles, and a secure holding area. Only authorized staff are able to access the source code and/or save to the holding area.

Compatibility

All applications are compatible with Internet Explorer® 7 (and above) and the latest two versions of Safari®, Chrome™, and Firefox®. Fully responsive design for iOS® delivered by Apple® iTunes Store®.

Also, the data held by the application host is in a format transferable i.e., returned to the client or passed to another ASP. Documents are held in their native format.

Architecture controls

Server configuration has been well thought through and documented. Care is taken to ensure that unnecessary services are stopped and disabled; default passwords are replaced with strong passwords; default accounts are removed and/or renamed; log files are protected; patches are applied in a timely fashion. Automatic updates are disabled.

OS Installation

Default accounts have been changed and/or disabled. All demonstration folders and data have been removed.

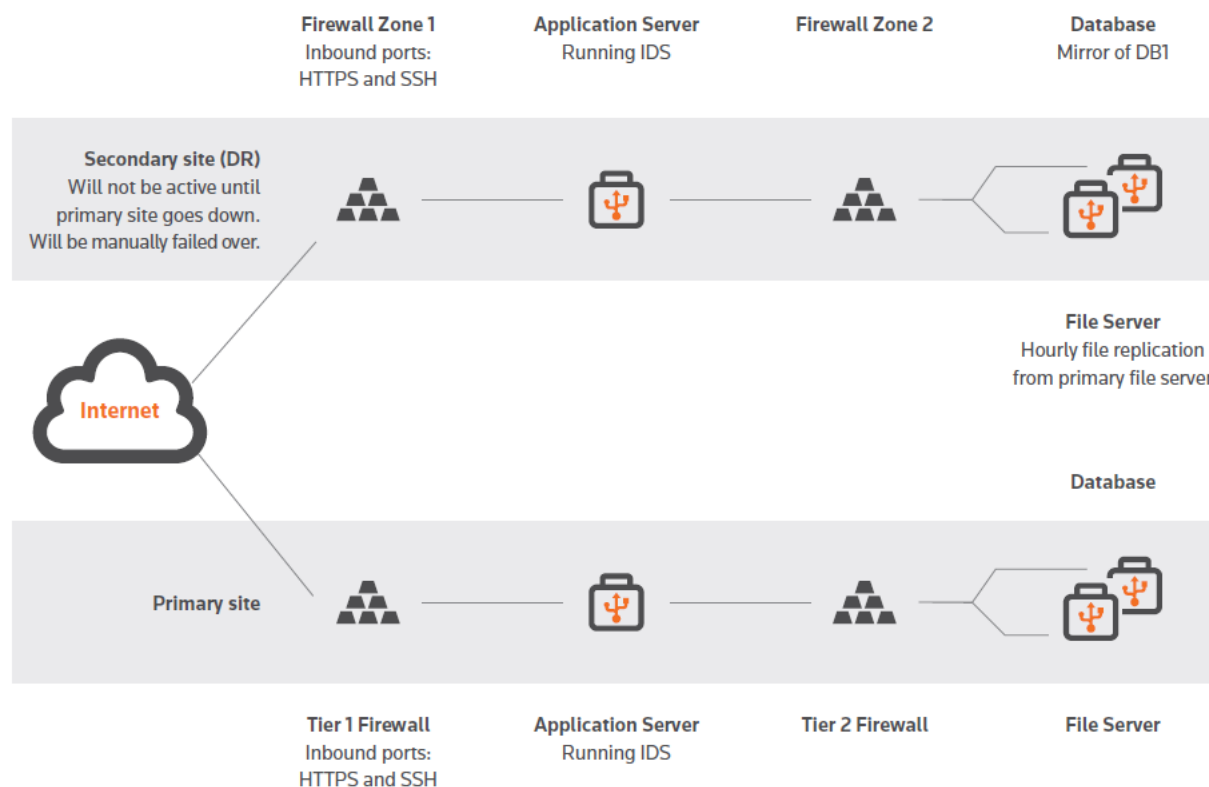

Patch application

All hardware and software involved in the provision of the application are patched to the latest level within an acceptable time frame. Patches are tested prior to implementation to ensure that the patch has been effective, that no new vulnerabilities have been introduced, and that interconnecting systems can still interact as required. Automatic updates/patches are disabled.

Secure architecture

The HighQ platform provides a variety of tools and features that you can use to keep your information safe from unauthorized use. This includes credentials for access control, HTTPS endpoints for encrypted data transmission, the creation of separate IAM user accounts, and user activity logging for security monitoring.

Security features

- Enterprise-grade servers and firewalls
- Encryption at rest provided by encrypted redundant disk SAN
- All servers have internal disk and power failover redundancy
- High availability built in at both hardware and application level
- Architecture is designed to scale horizontally and vertically
- All client data is stored on a separate network to the application and web servers for additional security
- All external traffic between client and server is encrypted
- Application layer firewall/IPS
- Intrusion detection—24/7 monitoring for any irregular application access patterns and proactive resolution
- 24/7 hardware monitoring tools in place which trigger immediate alerts in the event of component failure
- Anti-virus software on all document uploads

Strict firewall rules

- Web/Application servers in the DMZ network: all inbound traffic is blocked except for TCP HTTPS on port 443 and TCP port 80 from any IP address
- Mail servers in DMZ network: only inbound SMTP TCP port 25 open for inbound email traffic
- Database servers in the internal network: all inbound traffic is blocked except for remote desktop and MSSQL TCP ports from the relevant security groups
- File servers in the internal network: all inbound traffic is blocked except for Microsoft® Windows file sharing and remote desktop ports from the relevant security groups in the DMZ network

Business continuity

Thomson Reuters infrastructure has a high level of availability and provides customers a resilient IT architecture. We have designed systems to tolerate system or hardware failures with minimal customer impact. Our infrastructure is designed to withstand all levels of failure from basic component failure to actual site failure.

Component failure

Each server is configured to withstand power failure (redundant power supplies) and disk failure. In the event of such a failure, appointed members of the technical team are immediately alerted via email through the use of the 24/7 server monitoring services in place. The in-built failover will ensure that the system remains fully operational and Thomson Reuters will replace the failed component within 24 hours.

Software failure

All servers are monitored 24/7 and any software failure in operating system or application servers will immediately trigger an alert which can then be dealt with. In the unlikely event that there is a coding issue, our software engineers will work around the clock to ensure that the problem is resolved.

Hardware failure and site failure

In the event of a more serious failure (entire site), we will move immediately to the DR site. This may take up to one hour in total to ensure complete global DNS propagation (this is assuming the Time-To-Live value in the DNS record for the relevant URL is set to no more than 600 seconds).

Data backup

The databases are automatically backed-up (full back-up) every night. The database backups are kept on a rolling 30-day basis. The purpose of this back-up is to ensure that previous versions of the database can be restored in the event of the database becoming corrupted (it is possible that the DR database may also become corrupt through replication although very unlikely) so a separate back-up is required.

Database replication between the primary and DR site is performed over an encrypted VLAN in real time.

Network and data center security

Thomson Reuters data centers are state of the art, using innovative architectural and engineering approaches.

Our hosting providers have many years of experience in designing, constructing, and operating large-scale data centers. This experience has been applied to the HighQ platform and infrastructure. Data centers are housed in nondescript facilities. Physical access is strictly controlled both at the perimeter and at building ingress points by professional security staff using video surveillance, intrusion detection systems, and other electronic means. Authorized staff must pass multi-level authentication to access data center floors. All visitors and contractors are required to present identification and are signed in and continually escorted by authorized staff.

Thomson Reuters only provides data center access and information to employees who have a legitimate business need for such privileges. When an employee no longer has a business need for these privileges, his or her access is immediately revoked, even if they continue to be an employee of Thomson Reuters. All physical access to data centers by Thomson Reuters employees is logged and audited routinely.

Hosting locations

Each client instance of the application is installed in one jurisdiction only and client data stored in that instance never leaves the jurisdiction for backup, disaster recovery, or any other purposes except for when global users of the system download content over the internet, therefore data sovereignty is maintained at all times.
